Lyn Raymer studied fine arts at RMIT and Monash University in the 1970s.

She taught visual arts (International Baccalaureate) in Hong Kong, and later conducted drawing workshops in Hong Kong and Dubai.

She uses a reductive technique where erasers lift the charcoal and reveal the light areas.

After 22 years of teaching, practicing art, and managing her own studio and a gallery in Hong Kong, this expat is now based in Bendigo.
